WELCOME! TO SUMMERSTAGE 2014

WELCOME TO THE 2014 EDITION OF SUMMERSTAGE, PRODUCED BY CITY PARKS FOUNDATION.

The cultural richness of our home city – a place of innovation and diversity – is a constant source of inspiration for the team that programs SummerStage. We remain committed to enriching the lives of New Yorkers through FREE performing arts in all five boroughs, with particular attention to honoring the cultural legacy of art forms developed and informed by New York City.

SummerStage prides itself not only on being the largest free festival in New York City, but one that values the complexity and diversity of cultural movements that have contributed to the neighborhoods that we serve, New York City itself and culture globally.

From June through August, in Central Park and in 13 neighborhood parks across the five boroughs, we will present over 105 music, dance, theater, comedy, word, opera, film, family and circus programs, making SummerStage the largest free performing arts festival in NYC.

Among the many highlights, be sure to check out multi-instrumentalist and indie folk lyricist Andrew Bird; Grammy nominated baritone jazz singer Gregory Porter; and Chilean hip-hop fusion artist Ana Tijoux. Also not to be missed are award-winning tap dancer Jason Samuels Smith; Urban Theatre Movement's explosive performance of Handball; and our expanded circus series as part of SummerStage Kids, bringing circus arts from near and far to your neighborhood park.

Join us at SummerStage to celebrate the rich cultural history of the city, to discover contemporary sounds and styles from around the world, and be reminded why New York City is like no other place in the world.

SUMMERSTAGE CELEBRATES

50TH ANNIVERSARY

FANIA was created in 1964 in New York City. The label, both then and now, had artists that performed a variety of musical styles, from Mambo to Boogaloo, Salsa to Jazz, but also later Disco and House. The artists and label drew from musical roots in Cuba, but were hugely informed by their experience and life in the barrios of NYC, as well as contemporary American Culture, to create a sound and style that embodies the melting pot that is NYC. The impact of this distinctly New York-bred cultural phenomenon has had lasting influence in shaping the cultural landscape of the city and the world.

50 years later, SummerStage aims to highlight and reflect on FANIA, with a series of events that showcase both the past and present across New York's five boroughs where this movement was born. The series will be multidisciplinary, and include dance, music, poetry, theater, film, visual arts, panels and family programming. We will present legends that were on the label, artists who were part of the larger Salsa movement, and contemporary artists whose work are influenced by FANIA. Some highlights in the series include: John Leguizamo, Roberto Roena, Ismael Miranda, Típica 73, Ballet Hispanico, Moona Luna, Nuyorican Poets Café, and Bobby Sanabria. Plus salsa dance classes, film screenings, panel discussions and more...

Come join us at SummerStage to celebrate the FANIA legacy, and New York City!

WHAT TO KNOW

All programs unless otherwise noted are FREE!

SummerStage kindly reminds our patrons that in the interest of public safety the following items cannot be brought into the Central Park venue: glass bottles, cans, coolers, folding chairs, bicycles, rollerblades, skateboards, beach umbrellas, video cameras, tape recorders, professional camera gear or pets. SummerStage is not responsible for any prohibited items left outside the venue entrance. All bags are subject to search.

Bringing alcoholic beverages into any NYC park is forbidden and the distribution or sale of unauthorized promotional materials is not allowed. Beer and wine are on sale at the Central Park venue for onsite consumption only. Please remember as of May 2011, smoking is prohibited within all New York City parks.

Free Master Classes for all ages kick off citywide dance programs at 7pm; the professional dance programs citywide begin at 8pm. Additionally select citywide concerts will have free Salsa lessons for all ages at 6pm; these shows are marked with an asterisk.
